

Villa “Ditropo Althea” is a two-storey traditional residence that can accommodate from 2 to 4 persons. It is built at a great location with magnificent view to the sea and the mountain, it is made of stone and wood, and it is fully equipped to provide guests with autonomy and unlimited possibilities for long vacations.

The functional and comfortable rooms inside the residence, the selection of fine materials in the decoration, the delicate luxury in the furniture contribute to the creation of a place that provides the familiarity of home, and is particularly suitable for families or groups of many friends.

On the ground-floor, there is a bedroom (for two persons) with a bathroom (with a shower), a living-room, a dining-room and a kitchen which is fully equipped. An ancillary space can meet various needs, while a couch that is converted to a bed can accommodate two more persons. Large windows that let the light come into the rooms, and the joyful colors create a positive energy that makes you relax and takes away the everyday stress.

Villa “Ditropo Althea” is surrounded by a large yard paved with slabs and a green garden with aromatic plants, typical of the Mediterranean vegetation, where there are umbrellas and deck chairs, an outdoor shower and an outdoor barbecue.
